

BENNINGTON BULLETIN

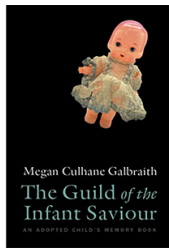

Multicultural, Multilingual Lives

The spring 2021 issue of (M)othertongues—a student-created, Mellon-supported website publishing multilingual, multicultural literary, art and performance pieces—is now available.

The Future of Music

Rolling Stone highlighted Asad J. Malik '19, now founder and CEO of the Augmented Reality company Jadu AR, and his work designing holograms for musicians like Lil Nas X and Pussy Riot.

An Extraordinary Collage

The Guild of the Infant Saviour: An Adopted Child's Memory Book, the first book by Megan Culhane Galbraith MFA '15, was released in May 2021 from Mad Creek Books/Ohio State University Press.

Pursuing Climate Justice

David Bond's six-part series reporting on the Limetree Refinery's history of environmental contamination in St. Croix, and the current call for radical change, has been published in the St. Croix Source and the St. Thomas Source. Bond wishes to thank Elinor Philips '22, who was instrumental to compiling this work.

Bookstore

The campus Bookstore is open this summer during regular administrative hours. Lite lunch options, snacks, beverages, and more are available. Additionally, items can be purchased on the online store for pick up or shipping. Faculty and staff receive 20% off of logo items; just use coupon code FACSTAFF20.

June Newsletters

Every month, Communications sends newsletters out to alumni and friends of the College and families. Enjoy June's stories and encourage interested community members to sign up for the alumni and friends newsletter.

June 26
Virtual Event
10:00 AM–1:00 PM

Virtual Summer Open House

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC | Info session, student-led virtual tour, and application & financial aid session designed for HS students interested in Bennington College. More.