

Director's Note

"This is mortality: to move along the rectilinear line in a universe where everything, if it moves at all, moves in a cyclical order."

-Hannah Arendt, The Human Condition.

"Corporal Westerborg won't wake up, not after the sun sets. He just won't. He can't be wakened. But in the morning, as soon as the sun comes up, he leaps out of bed and goes outside. Stays the whole day."

-Philip K. Dick, Piper in the Woods.

A Little Background

Alex began writing this play a little over a year ago in Sherry Kramer's Adaptation II class. You can find excerpts from her sources of inspiration quoted above. We are so excited to be part of a season of new plays and as this is a first production we welcome your thoughts and feedback.

More Thanks

I am grateful to Alex, my friend and collaborator. Our advisors Jenny, Sherry, Kirk and Jean and the whole drama faculty for their support and enthusiasm for this project. Krista, my incredible friend and stage manager, our wonderful team of designers, for bringing this world to life and the actors for their endless bravery.

Special Thanks to Jenny Rohn, Sherry Kramer, Jean Randich, Kirk Jackson, Dina Janis, Michael Giannitti, Mike Rancourt, Richard MacPike, Sue Rees, Sarah Chapin, Linda Hurley, Ruby Lavin, Maia Villa, Natalie Osborne, Justine Kefauver, and Jay Kineke.
