

SEPC Minutes

November 9, 2004

General Notes

-Brad Verter has been elected as the next head of APC. His term will begin at the beginning of the spring term and last for one year.

Discipline Updates

IKCLC: Discussions continue about the fate of the RCLC lab. Opinions should be directed to SEPC Reps.

Media Studies: This weekend's film series will feature Stan Brakhage work. Brakhage has been said to be a visual artist who uses film as his canvas – come to find out more. Film showings are Friday at 6:30 and Sunday at 3:00. This Thursday Jake Meginsky will present 'Animal Charm: Media Savages' as part of the Media Studies Lecture Series. Come to Barn 100 at 7:30 to find out more.

Visual Arts: No Updates.

Music: Congratulations everyone, Music Workshop is awesome. If you aren't coming, you are missing a most excellent experience. Due to the fantastic success of workshop, the sign-up sheets will be removed from the front lobby table in Jennings as soon as they are full. The sign-up sheet will be posted Wed. morning, so get there early, and remember to leave your extension. Anyone needing amplification is reminded to come to Workshop early to do a sound check – please be there at 6:00. The Carriage Barn's floor has been such a great success that we've decided to redo the ceiling as well. Talk to Jake Meginsky if you have ideas about what should be included.

Science and Math: We should know soon about the potential cell biology teacher. Ryan Johnson will be presenting in Science workshop on the 19; come to find out about chemistry.

Drama: Clean-up D207. Because of the lack of respect shown for the space, faculty is considering the possibility of keeping it locked. Drama Collective is hosting a "Clean up the Space" party Tues. night. Directing proposals for the fall 2005 are due Nov. 29 – turn them in!! Go to drama collective for feedback on your proposal. On Nov. 20th, the improv. troupe, Dillenger as part of the Upright Citizen's Brigade will be performing at 10:00 in the D-Café. They will be giving teaching a workshop from 1:00-4:00 on the 20th. Call Maya at 4494 for questions and to sign up.

Literature: No Updates.

Dance: The Martha Hill Dance concert will be this Friday and Saturday at 8:00 in Martha Hill. Featured Choreographers are Christina Lowry, Emma Manion, Zornitsa Stoyanova, Lawson Wulsin, Maria Murphy-Mayberry, and Susan Sgorbati. Carson Efir's senior dance concert will be in the Carriage Barn on Sunday and Monday at 8:00.

Social Science: No Updates.

CCT: The No Child Left Behind Lecture will be in December in the Carriage Barn – stay tuned for more info. Discussions about a possible lecture series and/or a link between the IT and the Democracy project have begun.
