

GALLEY

In recent weeks many young people have reported being stopped, questioned, and searched by police on the Taconic parkway. They were not stopped for traffic violations, but rather for haphazard inspections of suspicious (?) individuals and their personal property. So far no arrests have been made.

Bennington students and their friends are urged to exercise discretion when traveling the Taconic in the future.

March 22

B. Ware

[1968]