Dear Wendy:

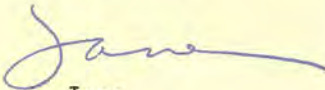

I find the rude and tedious tone of Dan Cameron's letter re the timing of the Judson Exhibit totally unnecessary.

As you might remember, we have scheduled it twice, and have been quite cooperative when it didn't appear - even though we weren't notified and were left in a lurch.

I quite understand the complexity of the show - however, it does seem to me that Bennington might be given as much consideration in the organization of the schedule as other museums and colleges. I too (as I'm sure you would) find it disappointing for the organizing institute not to have the complete version; I suggest you make sure Dan understands this.

As I told you as soon as I know definitely, I'll let you know. I'm sorry I don't know yet.

Regards,

Jane
