Bennington Vermont
June 2, 1942.

A meeting was held of the Central Committee on June 2, 1942. Those present were Mrs. Garrett, Jeanne Gaudy and Phyllis Carton. Applications for early leave were discussed and approved.

Early leave granted to Peggy Dunn in order that she might be able to attend her first class in summer school.

to Eleanore Pino so that she would be able to make living arrangements in New York for next winter prior to going to Detroit to be married.

to Edith Stevens in order that she might attend the Andover graduation.

to Nancy Hamill so that she might be able to attend a wedding of a very dear friend.

Respectfully Submitted

Phyllis Carton
