

KATHLEEN L. HARRIMAN 145 EAST 54th STREET NEW YORK 22, N. Y.

May 10th

Dear Mr. Jones;

I trust Nancy Whitney gave you my message. I'll be up at Bennington with pleasure on the 28th. It will be nice seeing you all again. Already I'm looking forward to it - my first excursion out of town since I started work! (Excepting a dreary trip to Baltimore dockyards collecting two Russian horses.)

I'll be driving up I imagine and if not Helen Cook says she'll meet me in Albany. She is full of plans for me acting as midwife for her four sheep!

My best to Mrs. Jones,

Sincerely,

Kathleen Harriman
