FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

Lt. Col. Eleanore C. Sullivan, WAC
Staff Advisor, will be on Campus on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, November 7th and 8th, to talk to any students who might be interested in learning of the opportunities for college graduates in the various branches of the service.

Will all girls who went job hunting during Mid-Term Vacation or after, please come in and report to the Non-Resident Term Office. We especially want to hear from the girls whose jobs are definite that we do not know about.

FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE

With the approach of winter, it is increasingly important that all parking in the streets cease IMMEDIATELY, as the snow plow will be unable to get through.

Parking in the streets is also a serious fire hazard and ample parking spaces have been provided for the use of the College Community.

FROM THE COOPERATIVE STORE

We have rearranged the Store so that we now have room to sell a few new books. Do come in and browse.

We will be very happy to special order anything. We try to place all orders on the day received. We do have to require a substantial down-payment, as many girls did not pick up the items previously ordered.

Remember - this is your Store. We want to have on hand what you want to purchase. Help us to have a better, bigger Store by buying at your own Store where possible.

We welcome all suggestions and "gripes".

WILLIAMS COLLEGE CONCERTS

On Tuesday, November 18th, the Thompson Concert Committee presents Mack Harrell, baritone. Chapin Hall at 8:15 p.m. (No admission charge).

On Monday, November 24th, a concert by the Berkshire Community Orchestra under the direction of Irwin Shainman. Chapin Hall at 8:15 p.m. The program will include Schubert's "Fifth Symphony".
