

FROM THE LIBRARY

Reminder - Reserve books borrowed from the Library for overnight use must be returned at 9:00 a.m. sharp, weekday mornings, and at 12:00 Noon sharp, on Sundays.

Clarification - The bell rung at five minutes before closing times in the Library is a "warning" bell; it is a signal, for the convenience of every one concerned, that the Library is about to close.

FROM THE SECRETARY FOR PERFORMING ARTS

The time for ORCHESTRA REHEARSALS on Tuesday nights has been changed from 7:40 to 8:00 p.m., starting this week.

All College Faculty and Staff members who are interested in BAND PLAYING are urged to attend a meeting and rehearsal next Wednesday, September 27th, at Jennings Hall (Room #136) at 7:30 p.m.

Rehearsal for the MIXED CHORUS is held on Wednesday evenings in the Carriage Barn. College community members are welcome.

There will be a class in making shepherd pipes on next Wednesday, September 27th, in Jennings Hall (Room #323) from 4:00-5:00 p.m. All who are interested, please come.

LITERATURE SEMINAR

There will be a Literature Seminar this Wednesday evening, September 27th, in Dewey Living Room at 7:40 p.m. Several of the Faculty members of the division will discuss Aristotle's "Poetics". The Community is cordially invited. We regret that members of the Mixed Chorus will not be able to attend.

DO YOU KNOW THAT you can still go to Europe this winter via the Experiment in International Living?

France looks like the focal point, and the girls want to travel by boat.

Applications are available in Miss Funnell's office. Hurry, and consider this opportunity before it's too late! (October 21st).
