OFFICE OF BENNINGTON COLLEGE

DATE 3-9-36

Dear Dr. Leigh:

Your very kind letter of March 2nd was a delightful surprise and the flattering invitation it contains is, I assure you, most attractive. I should like nothing better than to discuss a subject that I have very much at heart, and the prospect of seeing again my good Bennington friends as well as that of renewing acquaintance with you, is inducement enough to make me accept without hesitation for the date you suggest, Monday May 11th.

If you could let me know what phases of the relation of the arts to society will have been covered by previous discussions, or if you wish to assign me an historical period, I shall be glad to focus my remarks as you direct. Otherwise, I will formulate a topic of my own and let you know it in advance of the meeting date.

Faithfully yours,

Jacques Barzun
