

MINUTES OF THE BENNINGTON COLLEGE COOPERATIVE STORE BOARD

There was a meeting of the Bennington College Store Board on December 3rd in Room #76 of the Barn at 3:15 p.m.

Present: Mrs. Leslie, Miss Jones, Mr. Brockway, Miss Steven, Mr. Petersen, Katrina Voorhees, Helen Levine, Margaret Ramsey, Frances Berna, and Ruth Hodgson.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

From Community Council

The Committee consisting of Mr. Brockway, Laura Rice, and Miss Steven decided the most suitable place for a box for King and Co. and the Bennington Laundry was under the shelves in the cabinets on the side of the Store where the window seats are. The Store Board decided to charge $5 a year rent for the boxes.

Mrs. Stanwood of Overlea Inn has always had a box rent free in the Store. Miss Steven was left to ask her about her ability to pay rent for it.

Withdrawal of Membership

Will Parker wants to withdraw his membership from the Store owing to financial difficulties. The Store Board granted him permission to withdraw.

Fines

Results of the new Fine System in the paying of Store bills:

September 21	53 names on black list 15 over $10  Fines Collected $2.60.
October 8	47 names on black list 8 over $10  Fines Collected $2.60
October 22	43 names on black list 5 over $10  Fines Collected $3.10
November 9	55 names on black list 8 over $10  Fines Collected $2.10

November 24

85 names on black list
25 over $10

Fines Collected $2.20 (through December 2)

TOTAL FINES COLLECTED $12.60

Second-Hand Books

Wilcox and Follet, second-hand book agents from Chicago, want to come to College and buy second-hand books from students. They will pay the Store 5%. The Store Board was prepared to let them come at their own risk.

Goddard College

Vermont Cooperatives are to meet at Goddard College at the beginning of January. They want some people from College to go up.

Miss Steven and Katrina Voorhees are both interested in going.

Respectfully submitted

Ruth Hodgson