DO YOU KNOW THAT there is still time to sign up for the Non-Resident Term in Europe via the Experiment in International Living?

FROM THE SWITCHBOARD

Beginning on Wednesday, October 24th, a Black List will be posted on Monday of each week of students owing Switchboard bills of $5.00 and over.

Students whose names appear on this list, are asked not to charge long distance calls until their bill is paid.

*      *      *      *      *

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

All students who did job-hunting during the long weekend should report any results, good or bad, to the office so that the information obtained can be brought up to date on the records.

This is just a reminder that all students who are planning to go abroad under the auspices of the Experiment in International Living should have their final applications ready by November 1st. They are urged to see Miss Funnell as soon as possible so that arrangements can be made for a representative of the Experiment to come over from Putney to interview the candidates.

Pat Hale has very kindly offered to show the colored slides which she took last summer in Norway, where she was traveling under the Experiment in International Living, in Barn #1 on Thursday, October 26th, at 5:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend.
