- WHAT? Book discussions at Dartmouth - with girls from other schools and Dartmouth guys. Dartmouth's description:
"The discussions start at 2:00 P.M. and since it will be a lovely spring day, they can be held outdoors. Thayer dinner starts at 5:15. The flick "Contempt" will be shown at 8:00 P.M. in Fairbanks (also at 4:00 P.M. if it rains). There is a mixer in "The Thirsty Ear", the student union in College Hall, starting at 8:00 P.M. Single girls will always be welcome there. The girls will have to leave sometime after 11:30 P.M. to make their curfews."
- WHEN? Saturday, April 29. Signups start today. Five guys and five girls per group. First come, first served.
- HOW? Choose a book from the book lists posted on the New Wall and elsewhere. Fill out one of the blue cards at Switchboard and put it in Box 148 soon. If we have someone who will drive the college bus, we'll take that - otherwise we need people with cars. Any questions, ask Box 148.
