FROM THE SECRETARY FOR PERFORMING ARTS

There is a list of Dance Schools (including hours of classes, prices, etc.) of the Boston and New York areas on file in the Jennings Office for the use of any students who wish to continue study of composition or techniques during the Non-Resident Term.

FROM THE COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE

All student Time Sheets for October are due in the Comptroller's Office on or before 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, November 3rd.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

THANKSGIVING DAY, Thursday, November 22nd, will be a holiday, but classes will be held on Friday and Saturday as usual.

On Thanksgiving Day meals will be served according to the Sunday schedule with Thanksgiving dinner at 4:30 p.m.

Students are reminded that classes before and after vacations are not to be cut unless for valid and extremely important reasons.

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

A list of job openings is now posted on the Bulletin Board in the Barn. Some of them are tentative, depending on qualifications of applicants, and all of them are subject to personal interviews.

Because it is very important to know who is planning to apply for any of these jobs, everyone interested should report to the Non-Resident Term Office between 12:00 Noon and 1:00 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. every day but Saturday.

Also the Non-Resident Term Office would like to know results of any interviews students had during long weekend.

Camp Counseling Job

Hidden Valley Camp at Freedom, Maine, would like a Bennington student who could qualify as arts and crafts counselor. They usually employ their staff during the Fall for work the following Summer. Nancy Goodridge, who worked there last Summer, reports that it is an excellent camp.

Letters of application can be sent to the above address up until November 15th.
Nancy will be glad to give the address for applications after that date.

FROM THE DINING HALLS DEPARTMENTN O T I C E

Saturday, November 3rd, Formal Dance night, dinner will be served at the regular time, 6:30-6:45 p.m. Because the seating capacity is limited, students not attending the dance are asked not to bring guests in for dinner.

The Blue Pantry stairway will be closed for dinner. Everyone will enter the dining rooms by way of the two main stairways. Students going to the dance and their dates will use the Center Dining Room. All others will use the Red, Green, Blue, and Faculty dining rooms.

EVERYONE IS REQUESTED TO BE IN THE DINING ROOMS PROMPTLY AT 6:30 P.M.
