Special Thanks to...

My parents for coming all this way to see me and never letting me forget how much they love me, my friends for being so supportive during these four years of stress, Ida and Kathy for always being painfully honest and pushing me to do my best, Camille Hartman for being a great coworker and honest friend, Rick Little for his thoughtful critique, Anne Hill for spending tedious hours working on this program, Adam Drake and Justin Schlecter for letting us bug them with questions, and everybody who came to see the production.

This concert is made possible in part through the generous support of Judith Rosenberg Hoffberger '54 and the Henry and Ruth Blaustein Rosenberg Foundation.
