

The Problems of the Present
Community Organizations and Their Set-ups

1. Functions:

Policy has been subordinated to details which could have been handled by sub-committees.

2. Coordination:

over-lapping activities.

lack of balanced program planning.

poor inter-communication.

3. Lack of centralization and responsibility.

4. Need of greater continuity.

5. Not enough interplay between students and governing bodies.