

To the College Community:

Tonight (June 12) in the Commons Theatre at 10 p.m. there will be a Workshop of short films made by students of the Cinematography Class. A series of commercials, documentaries, and dramatic films made by the students during the course of this semester will be shown.

The College Community is invited to attend.

