

Beyond the Bubble

Bennington

Light the Night for Recovery

March 12th

5:30 PM

205 South St.

Community members will gather at the Town Office for a candlelight vigil in memory of the lives lost to addiction.

St. Patrick's Day Parade

March 20th

1:00 PM

Downtown Bennington

Fundraiser Breakfast

March 20

10:00 AM

J.C's Tavern

Kick-off the celebrations with a fundraiser breakfast at J.C's. All funds go to the Bennington County Coalition for the Homeless.

The Only Brown Kid in the Trailer Park

March 25th

8:00 PM

Oldcastle Theatre

Dion Flynn's solo show, The Only Brown Kid in the Trailer Park, takes audiences along on one man's unique journey, starting in a trailer park 40 miles south of the Mason-Dixon line and ending in the White House.

Manchester

Dorset Farmers' Market
every Sunday

10:00 AM - 2:00 PM

J.K Adam's Store

Figure Drawing

March 8th

4:30 PM

Southern VT Arts Center

All levels, bring your own supplies, work from a live model, drop-ins welcome.

$12 for students.

Williamstown

Mark Erelli

March 19th

7:30 PM

The Williams Inn

Roots and folk-country hero Mark Erelli has been called the male counterpart to Neko Case. He's been around for more than a decade but is still producing fine work and stretching himself.

M is Black Enough

March 26th

8:00 PM

Mass MOCA

M is Black Enough exercises spirited conversation and debate through steel-pan, cello, text, and voice. Cellist Jeffrey Zeigler, of Kronos Quartet fame, teams up with composer and percussionist Andy Akiho and poet Roger Bonair-Agard for a work-in-progress program of spoken word and music, both complex and aggressive.

Model Soviet Time Machines

March 15

5:30 PM

The Clark

This talk addresses a range of representations of architectural construction and urban development in Moscow in the 1930s on the part of the artists Aleksandr Rodchenko and Varvara Stepanova and the writers Viktor Shklovsky and Sergei Tret'iakov.