

WHICH WAY NOW?
A Colloquium on the Civil Rights Movement Today

Schedule:

Friday, December 2:

Afternoon: Registration of delegates from other colleges and of speakers in Commons

8:30pm: Carriage Barn
Keynote Address: Julian Bond
Coffee in Swan living-room afterwards

Saturday, December 3:

9:30--11:30: Carriage Barn
Panel: What's Happening Now, North and South?
Moderator: Mr. Rowe

11:45--1:00: Two short Newark Project Films
Discussion

2:00--3:45: Workshops
Dewey: The Federal Government and the "White Backlash"
Kilpatrick: Non-Violent Action and the Right to Self-Defense
McCullough: Black Power in Action

4:00--6:00: Workshops, cont.
Dewey: Black Consciousness
Kilpatrick: Politics in the Cities, North and South
McCullough: Black Power in Action

8:00--10:00: Films: Commons Theatre
Tent City
Newark Project, an award-winning film

10:00-- Leigh and Booth
Refreshments and Record-Players

Sunday, December 4:

11:45--2:00: Carriage Barn
Panel: The Future of the Movement:
The American Problem
Moderator: Mr. Koch

[1966]