

American Red Cross
Vermont & the New Hampshire
Upper Valley Region

Heroes are normal people who step up in times of need. Wanna be an everyday hero? Volunteer for the Red Cross

Come join us for the Disaster Services Overview Course and see if being a Red Cross volunteer is for you.

After this class, participants will be able to—

1. Explain how disasters affect people and communities.
2. Describe how the American Red Cross works with partners in community disaster preparedness and response.
3. Describe how the Red Cross provides services to people affected by disaster and the principles that guide Red Cross workers and volunteers
4. Identify resources for personal preparedness.
5. Determine how to help their community prepare and respond to disasters.
6. Identify next steps to becoming a volunteer.

Sunday, October 26,
2014
12:00pm to 4:00pm
Bennington College
EAC Building

Please contact Matthew Scott to sign up: mscott@bennington.edu or call \(802\) 440-4330440-4330)