My dear Miss Jones:

I find that the latest publication we have received from you is the announcement for the fourth year. We shall await eagerly forthcoming publications. If there is to be any printed report of the commencement exercises, I should be especially interested to have that.

I attended the commencement and was delighted with its simplicity and the richness of its meaning. If there is to be no printed report, can you tell me how I might secure a copy of President Leigh's address and Professor Kilpatrick's words to the graduates?

Very truly yours,

[Mrs] Alice B. Nichols

Dear Mrs. Nichols:

I am sending you enclosed a printed copy of Mr. Leigh's Commencement talk but regret to say that we have no printed copy of Dr. Kilpatrick's remarks. It might interest you to know that this printed copy was made by one of our very recent graduates in the College printing shop.

I am glad that you found our Commencement so pleasing--we desired above all things to have it simple and significant.

Sincerely yours,

Catharine Jones
Secretary to the President
