

GALLEY

Well, boys and girls, it looks as though Benningtonia is in real trouble this time! Will Batman be able to save the students before that Dastardly Duo Edward Bloustein and Stanley Pike (alias, the Jokers*) enforce their outrageous demands?

Will Batman contribute some of Bruce Wayne's millions to aid students in their fight against the $400 increase?

Will he convince the Riddlers (our parents) who keep asking, "Where do you think we are going to get $3.850?

Will Batman succeed in bringing the curriculum into the Twentieth Century?

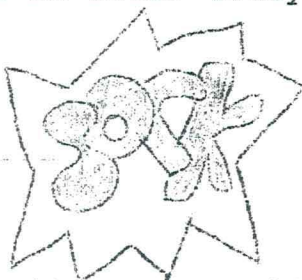

Will Batman help us pass our REQUIRED science courses?

Will Bloustein remove the Bat Control that extends into the science labs?

Will cruddy creativity be able to combat Law and Logic?

Will this "new" Benningtonia be a feather in President Bloustein's cap - or a piece of macaroni?

For the answers to these and many more pertinent questions, tune in later today...

* What? Are you kidding?

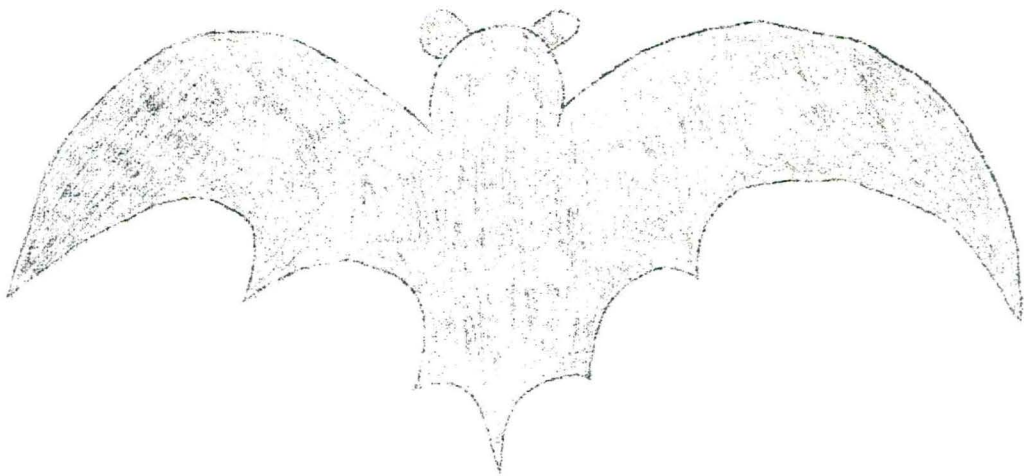

SAME BAT BOX!
SAME BAT GALLEY!
