NOTE TO THE COLLEGE COMMUNITY

Robertson Ward, the architect designing the entire physical expansion of Bennington (Science Building, Performing Arts Building, Visual Arts Building, remodelling of Commons and the Barn) will present a progress report on the current architectural plans to the College Community at large tomorrow (Thursday) at 9:30 p.m. in Commons Lounge.

Mr. Ward will repeat his presentation to the Board of Trustees last weekend. The presentation includes slides showing site plans, diagrammatic schemes for the interior makeup of the new buildings, and some preliminary sketches.
