CONFERENCE

"AS THE SPACE IN WHICH STUDENTS LIVE BECOMES MORE FREE, WE SHALL ALSO FIND THE UNIVERSITY BECOMING MORE FREE. FREE MEN MUST CREATE AND CONTROL THEIR LIVING ENVIRONMENT. STUDENT RUN COOPERATIVE HOUSING MEETS THIS NEED."

"PROFITS MUST CEASE MOVING FROM STUDENT'S POCKETS TO THE ABSENTEE LANDLORD'S. IN MANY CASES THE UNIVERSITY IS AS MUCH AN ABSENTEE LANDLORD TO THE STUDENT AS IS THE SLUM LANDLORD TO THE GHETTO DWELLER."

To impress upon students both their need and their ability to control the environment in which they live, the North American Student Cooperative League is calling a national conference on October 11, 12, 13 in Washington D.C. The cost will be a special rate of $7.00 per student for three days at the Washington Hilton Hotel.

Dr. Erich Fromm and Mr. Marcus Raskin will be two of the many noted resource people attending this conference. Students who are already living in the 200 existing cooperatives will be present to relate their experiences.

Problems concerning transportation can be worked out. If you are interested in going, please get in touch with Emily Israel, Box 307, ext. 391, as soon as possible.
