

The Educational Policies Committee met on Wednesday, October 1, 1941, at 6:30 p.m. in the Committee Dining-room. Present were Helen Levine, Margaret Klaw, Hilda Wheelwright, Cynthia Jenkinson, Joan Strong, Ann Mills, and Nika Pleshkoff.

Library Hours

Mrs. Leslie said that it would be impossible to have the library open Sunday nights because of financial reasons, and also because it was used very little Friday nights and Saturday.

College Reorganization

The following questions were submitted by the Committee to be asked Mr. Jones at the next E. P. C. meeting with him:

1. College aims
  - a. Will they be changed?
  - b. Will it tend more toward vocational training, or a liberal arts course?
2. Curriculum
  - a. Does working out the curriculum mean prerequisites and standardization?
  - b. How will the counselling system work in and what part will it play?
  - c. Will it involve counselling outside your division?
3. Student government
  - a. Will there be a centralization of the committees?
  - b. What function will the E. P. C. have?
  - c. How will it be organized?
  - d. How much control will the students have in making appointments and dismissals?
  - e. How much will the students have to say about college policies?
4. How will sabotage be done away with? (faculty)
5. Who are the members of the Faculty E. P. C. and the Presidential Advisory Committee?
6. What place will the performing arts (music, theatre arts) have in the new curriculum?

The meeting was adjourned at 7:15 ;.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Nika Pleshkoff
