

St. Francis Center for Personal Growth

BENEFIT CONCERT

On Friday, February 14th., a benefit concert for St. Francis Center will be presented by Dorothy Rice, harpsichordist, and Susan Sgorbati, dancer/choreographer, at Nourse Hall, Trinity Church in Rutland, Vermont at 8:00 p.m.. There will be a donation of $5.00 at the door.

Together, Ms. Rice and Ms. Sgorbati direct a wealth of knowledge and experience to their performing fields. Ms. Rice currently resides in North Shrewsbury, Vt. teaching music, playing harpsichord concerts and developing her skill and joy in music improvisation. In recent months she has commenced a "Creative Sound and Music" class in the area and recorded for Rooster Records, a tape entitled "Music for a Special Day." Ms. Sgorbati resides in Sudbury, Vt. and is currently on a choreography fellowship at Bennington College. She is on the faculty at both Bennington College and Castleton State College and presently is the Director of The Governor's Institute on the Arts, a summer program directed for adolescents. In the Spring, one of Ms. Sgorbati's Site Dances (dances made from specific natural or man-made environments) will be performed at an ocean location outside Boston.

The Concert will include four Scarlatti Sonatas; two of which will be choreographed and danced by Ms. Sgorbati as well as dances by Byrd, Couperin and an Improvisation for Harpsichord, bells and dancer.

We welcome you to attend this fine performance of music and dance.
