MEETING FOR BABY SITTERS

All students who wish to be on the official list of baby sitters this year should attend a special meeting at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 13th, in Franklin Living Room.

There will be a general discussion of some of the problems of child care and of standards of employment for baby sitters.
 A panel consisting of Dr. Hager, Mrs.
 Coburn and Mrs. Stange will start the discussion. All faculty wives are invited to attend.

GRAPHIC ARTS STUDENTS

The Graphic Arts Studio is being cleaned. Consequently, there is a large quantity of material: drawings, prints, blocks, plates, etc. which students should retrieve if they want them. Unless they are picked up by Friday,
 September 15th, they will be destroyed.

ART EXHIBIT

There is an exhibit of recent art works of members of the Art Faculty in the Art Gallery and in the cases on the third floor of Commons which will be on display from September 11th through September 24th.

FROM THE HEALTH SERVICE

Attention is called to the Dispensary Hours which follow:

Monday through Friday	8:30 - 12:30
	1:30 - 4:45
	7:15 - 7:45
Saturday	10:00 - 12:30
	4:00 - 5:00
Sunday	11:00 - 12:00

Your cooperation is asked in adhering to these hours except in the case of an emergency. Under those circumstances, dial 255 and you will be attended to by the Nurse in charge who will call Dr. Hager, if necessary.

All new students are asked to sign up on a list posted in the Health Service for a physical examination which will take about twenty minutes. Appointments should be made promptly and kept as failure to do so delays an entire program.

Returning students are asked to report to us any illness, operation or other interesting medical events so that we may keep our records up-to-date.
