Dear Mr. Goldstein:

Mr. Ken Landis, the Development Director of the college, has referred to me your letter of March 15th with the list of books by and about Blacks. The library has a number of them but could also use a number. I am listing those titles which would be useful to us. I very much appreciate your support of the library in the program of developing a Black Literature Collection. I would hope that such a collection would be as interesting to whites as to Blacks.

Griffin - Black Like Me
Javits - Discrimination U. S. A.
Malcolm X - Malcolm X Speaks
Fortune editors - Negro and the City
Gregory - Nigger
Conot - Darkness
Lomax - When the World is Given
Fager - Power
Barndt - Why Black Power?
Baldwin - Notes of a Native Son
Brown - Manchild in the Promised Land
Chapman - Black Voices
Clarke - American Negro Short Stories
Hughes - Best of Simple
" - The Big Sea
" - I Wonder as I Wander
Jones - Black Music
" - Blues People
" - Tales
" - The System of Dante's Hell
Wright - Uncle Tom's Children

Very truly yours,

Robert M. Agard
