Re:

Are any of the Patrick Heron prints for sale? note to Lionel Norak is inquiring.
Lionel Norak

Dear Lionel,
I spoke to Patrick Heron who said that his prints were for sale, however, they would have to be purchased from his gallery in London, Waddington + Tooth, as they were not imported to be sold but for educational purposes. Mr Crispea, the gallery's print man, would ship whichever print you wanted straight back to you by mail if you let him know exactly which one it is. The price range from £80 - £110 Sterling. Grahame
