THE CASTLE

Four formerly imprisoned New Yorkers, with a total of 60 years of incarceration, relate their journeys of crime, privation, and redemption.

Conceived and directed by David Rothenberg, founder of The Fortune Society.

Written in collaboration with and performed by:

Rory Anderson
Vilma Ortiz-Donovan
Victor Rojas
Casimiro Torres

The Fortune Society's mission is to support successful re-entry from prison and promote alternatives to incarceration, thus strengthening the fabric of our communities. We do this by:

- BELIEVING in the power of individuals to change
- BUILDING LIVES through service programs shaped by the needs and experience of our clients
- CHANGING MINDS through education and advocacy to promote the creation of a fair, humane and truly rehabilitative correctional system

Fortune serves more than 5,000 men and women annually through a holistic, one-stop model of service provision.

This play is the first of three events this spring under the Center for the Advancement of Public Action's Incarceration in America Initiative, which began in 2014 and includes curriculum, visiting speakers, theatrical events, think tanks, and retreats aimed to develop public policy and political action in the post-tough-on-crime era.

Special thanks to Sue Rees and the Bennington College drama department.
