Mrs. Dione Lucas, diplome Cordon Bleu, has generously offered to give a demonstration of French cooking on Friday, June 10th, at 8:00 p.m. in the Carriage Barn, for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund.

Tickets will cost 75¢ for students; $1.00 for general admission, and will be available shortly at the store.

Mrs. Lucas conducts a cooking school in New York, a television program for Caloric range (adv.) and is the sister of Miss Orrea Pernel (adv.).

The menu will be announced beforehand, but part of it is known to be a French omelette, a casserole and a dessert -- all very handy for the future brides of America.*

FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

Arts, Crafts Counselor at Idle Pines, Strafford, New Hampshire. They would prefer someone with a knowledge of archery. If interested, phone Cranford 6-5189 before June 13th.

* * * *

If you have not already done so, will you please report to the Non-Resident Term Office on the status of your summer jobs. We would like to know if your jobs are definite, and where they are. If you are working on prospects, we would also like to have this information.

* * * *

*Chef Lucas is like a trip to the Tour d'Argent in Paris.

Only 75¢ (the price of a movie!)

FROM THE HEALTH SERVICE

It might interest the College community to know that this past week we had, in the infirmary, the 5000th patient since Bennington College opened. 2445 patients have been admitted since 1945.

Will seniors all please come and pick up their x-rays from the table in the Health Service waiting-room?

* * * *

FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE

On Monday, June 13th, a leaflet entitled TRANSPORTATION ARRANGEMENTS will be put in each student's post office box.

Please read this over carefully and, if you wish transportation for yourself to the bus or railroad station, or, if you wish your trunks, suitcases, etc. shipped, be sure to fill out the lower part of this leaflet and get it turned in at the Superintendent's Office as soon as possible. The sooner these are turned in, the more likely you are to have your luggage arrive at its destination at the time desired.

LATE NEWS BULLETIN

On Friday, Mrs. Lucas will make for us a dinner to make Brillat-Savarin's mouth water: cheese soufflé, salmon mayonnaise, chicken majorca, croissant rolls, cabbage strudel, coffee meringue "mushroom" cake, two omelettes!

These dishes will be auctioned off to eat, also a heavenly batch of utensils from the Bazaar Francaise. How would you like to sample one of these gastronomic delights?

Mrs. Lucas will show you how to do it yourself, future Bennington bride.
