Dear Dr. Leigh:

I showed the seal to the Trustees and they were not at all enthusiastic. I think most of them liked the design fairly well, but they all objected violently to the use of the monument. One or two of them seemed to feel that if we could substitute the pine tree, more or less as used on the Vermont State seal, for the monument, it might be all right.

I will talk it over with you again when you get back from the South. I hope you got over your grippe satisfactorily and are enjoying the warmth and sunshine.

Very sincerely yours,

Elizabeth J. Thayer
