

Bennington College
May 27, 1940

The Recreation Council met April 9, 1940. Those present were: Gertrude Streeter, Phyllis Wood, Rebecca Stickney, Georgina Hazeltine, Joan Hinton, Jean Short, Helen Steffen, Virginia Wilson, Lucille Kron, Marjorie Hill, Mr. Park, Miss Miller, Miss Shelly, Mary Jane Meyer, Rose Chatfield-Taylor, Florence Booker, Charlotte Watson.

Faculty Advisors

Gertrude Streeter read a memo from Mr. Leigh to the effect that Miss Shelly was to take Mr. Chapman's place on the Recreation Council.

Movies

The Council agreed to sponsor Donald Budge Tennis Movies on the 23rd of April.

Special Committee

The Committee on Furnishing and Equiping has been changed to the Special Committee to take care of all business concerning the Recreation Building. Mary Berna has been added to this Committee. Miss Shelly informed the Council that all House Chairmen were to make a report to the next house meeting from the Committee.

Fairview Recreation Hall

Opening

A report from the Store Board announced a Free Tea from four to six in the afternoon of the 12th of April at the Recreation Building. The House Wraming for the night of the 12th has been planned and will be from 8:30 to midnight.

Liquor Policy

The Council Members were asked to remind students that all parties must be reported to the house chairman on the week end of the Informal Dance.

Lounge

Gertrude Streeter requested the Council to get victrola records for the Recreation Building Lounge from all those who were willing to contribute.

Entertainment Committee

House Warming

Mary Jane Meyer, Chairman, announced that three refreshment tickets would be bought at the door for $.35 and would entitle the holder to either beer or hot dogs. A Jam Session has been planned with

Bennington College
May 29, 1940

Mr. McBride and Miss Lavack to provide the music. Transportation would be provided through the Committee Chairman and week end guests were to be invited.

Student Treasurer

Charlotte Watson informed the Council and especially the Committee Heads that there was a Petty Cash Account of $5.00 from which small amounts could be drawn upon a written statement to her.

Concert

The Council was informed that Mr. DeGrey would like to give a series of Bach Concertos, but it was found that there would be no time for it this Spring. The possibility of having it next fall was to be referred to the General Meetings Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

Phyllis Wood