MISSING MUGS! BURGLARIZED BOWLS! GLASSES GONE!

A number of mugs, glasses, and bowls are missing from the Dining Hall. If you have a Dining Services item in your possession, please, return it as soon as you can--no questions asked. Your fellow diners will thank you.

WELLNESS ANNOUNCE- MENTS

HEALTH SERVICES has established an open hour weekly on Tuesdays, at 1:00 pm. The purpose of this open hour is to provide students with a welcoming opportunity to discuss any issues related to health or the provision of health care on campus and off. Because of the special ethical and legal nature of doctor-patient relationships, we will not be able to give medical advice during these sessions, but can assist and direct students to resources where they may obtain such advice.

SUBSTANCE USE: MYTHS AND MIS-
INFORMATION. Open to any students interested in the issue of substance use. Concerned about a friend's use? a family member's use? Interested in campus wellness efforts? Come talk to Lisa Citarella of Psych Services on Wednesdays at 5:00 pm in the Student Center.

Cooper's Corner

Got questions? Ask Tina (tinacooper@bennington.edu)

The votes are in and the students have spoken: your long weekend trips are Boston & Burlington! But that's not all, folks, there is an Albany trip taking place the Friday of Long Weekend that includes a trip to the Crossgates Mall and a Laser Tag arena--and get this: the Laser Tag place is right next to an extensive Asian market. So if shopping 'til you drop or laser fights don't get you pumped, then at least come along to stock up on the Ramen beyond Maruchan!

From my corner to yours,
