

Workshop: Sexual Harassment in the Workplace, Wed, Nov 30

Alli Tartaglia, Director of Student Health Promotion; Lydia Brassard, Director of Institutional Diversity and Inclusion; and FWT staff will host a workshop addressing sexual harassment in the workplace. Facilitators will discuss related laws, Bennington College policy, and systems to support those who might confront harassment and gender discrimination during FWT, as well as handling uncomfortable situations on the job. Join us on November 30 at noon in DownCat.

Interested in an FWT in Morocco next year? Let us know.

Students from Susie Ibarra's Improvvisation, Indeterminacy, and Art Intervention class are working with the Field Work Term Office and with Aziza Chaouni Projects to develop a possible recurring FWT position in Morocco starting next year. We hope to gauge student interest and feedback from those looking to potentially intern at Joudour Sahar, a music school predicted to open in January 2018, located in the oasis M'hamid El Gziane, south Morocco, an area known for its numerous indigenous groups, each with its own customs, religion, music, and traditions. The school's mission is to discover, research, record, and preserve the cherished music of these cultures; as well as to offer training in various music disciplines to the local youth. If you are interested in contributing to projects across various areas of study such as music, film & video, photography, education, and possibly languages (Arabic, French), please come to Barn 237 on Wednesday, November 30 from 1pm-1:30pm to share your interest and questions and help inform the crafting of this future opportunity. (Internships will likely require proficiency in French or Arabic.)

New and Notable FWT '17 Job and Internship Listings

Field Work Term 2016-2017 positions:

1. Multiple positions, Alliance for Young Artists and Writers, Scholastic, Inc., NYC (paid)
2. Social Work Assistant, Bennington Project Independence, Bennington, VT
3. Creative Writing Manuscript Development Intern, Marilyn Lowen (civil rights activist), Southfield, MI (housing, meals)
4. Speak Truth to Power Program Intern, Robert F. Kennedy Center for Human Rights, Florence, Italy
5. Production Assistant, BOOM BAT GESTURE Performance Group, NYC (transportation)

Log on to WorkLink to see more!

Workshop: Sexual Harassment in the Workplace, Wed, Nov 30

Alli Tartaglia, Director of Student Health Promotion; Lydia Brassard, Director of Institutional Diversity and Inclusion; and FWT staff will host a workshop addressing sexual harassment in the workplace. Facilitators will discuss related laws, Bennington College policy, and systems to support those who might confront harassment and gender discrimination during FWT, as well as handling uncomfortable situations on the job. Join us on November 30 at noon in DownCat.

Interested in an FWT in Morocco next year? Let us know.

Students from Susie Ibarra's Improvvisation, Indeterminacy, and Art Intervention class are working with the Field Work Term Office and with Aziza Chaouni Projects to develop a possible recurring FWT position in Morocco starting next year. We hope to gauge student interest and feedback from those looking to potentially intern at Joudour Sahar, a music school predicted to open in January 2018, located in the oasis M'hamid El Gziane, south Morocco, an area known for its numerous indigenous groups, each with its own customs, religion, music, and traditions. The school's mission is to discover, research, record, and preserve the cherished music of these cultures; as well as to offer training in various music disciplines to the local youth. If you are interested in contributing to projects across various areas of study such as music, film & video, photography, education, and possibly languages (Arabic, French), please come to Barn 237 on Wednesday, November 30 from 1pm-1:30pm to share your interest and questions and help inform the crafting of this future opportunity. (Internships will likely require proficiency in French or Arabic.)

New and Notable FWT '17 Job and Internship Listings

Field Work Term 2016-2017 positions:

1. Multiple positions, Alliance for Young Artists and Writers, Scholastic, Inc., NYC (paid)
2. Social Work Assistant, Bennington Project Independence, Bennington, VT
3. Creative Writing Manuscript Development Intern, Marilyn Lowen (civil rights activist), Southfield, MI (housing, meals)
4. Speak Truth to Power Program Intern, Robert F. Kennedy Center for Human Rights, Florence, Italy
5. Production Assistant, BOOM BAT GESTURE Performance Group, NYC (transportation)

Log on to WorkLink to see more!