

CARNIVAL

We need ideas from everyone to produce a marvel of a carnival NINE days from today, on May 23. There are 20 booths, and so far only 10 houses have come up with decisions for booths. Ooooooooooh! So please please get together in your houses to make plans to organize, supply, and decorate. As soon as you decide, please let me, (Carole Bolsey) know 1) the type of booth you will do, and 2) the names of the people in charge. I will be happy to supply you with suggestions if need be.

Like last year, your house chairman will collect 50% from you to buy beer (oh, yes) and wine (but of course).

And now is the time to start thinking up a splendid costume/mask/get-up/zerocostume/anticostume/whatever you please costume, to wear in the parade and to dinner.

Anything goes ----- SOON!
