FROM THE NON-RESIDENT TERM OFFICE

For any students wishing to earn extra money, there is an opportunity to represent the Travelers Credit Service on the Bennington Campus and earn liberal commission on memberships sold. Travelers Credit Service, Inc. operates a credit plan which permits its members to charge purchases at better restaurants, shops, clubs and car hire companies in fourteen different European countries. Further details about this opportunity may be had in the Non-Resident Term Office.

Representative of British Summer Schools here: On Friday of this week, Mr. Gareth Lloyd Evans of the University of Birmingham, will be on campus to publicize the International Summer Schools at Oxford, London, Stratford and Edinburgh. He will be glad to meet with student groups who want to know about opportunities for summer study in Britain. Those interested should notify Miss Sherwood, Barn 71.

There are some paid jobs in Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, Greenwich, Connecticut, as well as New York City. These jobs are listed on the bulletin board in the Barn.
