

Bennington College April 9-19, 1980

The Bennington College Dance division is pleased to announce residencies in dance, film and video given by the following artists:

TRISHA BROWN

STEVE CHRISTIANSEN

STEVE PAXTON

BABETTE MANGOLTE

PETER MOORE

YVONNE RAINER

LISA NELSON

The April residencies are the first part of the Bennington College Judson Project, which will extend over the next year. The purpose of The Judson project is to explore the continuing work of artists involved in the Judson Dance Theater, which was an explosive center of experimental performance work in the early 1960's. The guest artists-in-residence at Bennington this April are original members of the Judson group or are doing related work.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9

Paxton, Nelson, Christiansen:
Public videotaping
9:00 PM in Martha Hill Dance Theater

THURSDAY, APRIL 10

Brown and Paxton:
Discussion on Judson era
8:00 in Room E303 of the
Visual Arts and Performing Arts Center

FRIDAY, APRIL 11

Brown: Dance performance
8:30 PM in Martha Hill Dance Theater

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16

Rainer: Film showing
"Journeys from Berlin/ 1971"
(1979) 8:00 PM in Tishman Lecture Hall

THURSDAY, APRIL 17

Rainer: Film showing
"Lives of Performers" (1972)
followed by discussion with
Rainer and camera person Mangolte
4:15 in Tishman Lecture Hall

FRIDAY, APRIL 18

Rainer: Film showing
"Journeys from Berlin/ 1971"
8:00 PM in Tishman Lecture Hall

SATURDAY, APRIL 19

Video showing of work by Judith Dunn
2:00 PM in Newman Court
Visual Arts and Performing Arts Center

The schedule is subject to change; further or updated information may be obtained by calling Ron Dabney at (802) 442-5401 extension 270. All of the above events are open to the public and are free of charge.

JUDSON PROJECT

↑
H.t.
to line

Photo

Bleed

P/2 fold

Bena. College
Bena. Vt.