A N N O U N C E M E N T S

Williams College and the New England Foundation for the Arts, brings Mark Russell, with Performing Space 122, is presenting this exciting group of young performance artists from New York City. These artists, who usually work independently, have come together for this tour; and include, Ann Carlson, Susan Rethorst, Mark Anderson, Mimi Goese, Gayle Tufts, Paul Zaloom, Bill Obrecht, Ishmael Houston-Jones, and Bob Flynt. Please see this issue of COLLEGE WEEK for schedules of workshops and performances.

TO ALL DANCE AND DRAMA STUDENTS; All dance and drama students are required to fulfill a lab requirement (crew) each term. If you do not fulfill your lab requirement, you will not pass your dance or drama course. Lab preference sheets are available in the Dance/Drama Office, VAPA E218, or from your faculty in class. They must be returned to the Dance/Drama Office no later than 3:00 p.m., Monday, September 15th. If you have any questions, please see Dave Groupe, the Technical Director for the Dance/Drama Divisions or any Dance or Drama faculty.

HEALTH SERVICE: The Health Service is open daily from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. (3:00 p.m.-11:00 p.m. on weekends). A nurse is on duty when the Infirmary is open. During night hours, after 11:00 p.m., Security arranges emergency transportation to the Southwestern Vermont Medical Center. A college physician is available five days a week during clinic hours. Appointments for doctor visits should be arranged either through the nurse on duty or the secretary.

IMPORTANT REMINDER: Because of the schedule for visiting Presidential Candidates, the Universal Counseling Hour for Wednesday, September 17, Wednesday, September 24, and Wednesday, October 1, will be held from 4:00 - 5:00 p.m. Students should be able to find all members of the faculty in their offices at that time on these three days. As of Wednesday, October 8, the Universal Counseling House will revert to its traditional slot: 2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

PSYCHOLOGICAL COUNSELING SERVICE: The Counseling Service is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. daily. Students wishing to make an appointment may call the secretary on Extension 208. Students may also come directly to the Counseling Service on the second floor of Commons to schedule an appointment. This office may be reached from the street on either end of the building. Psychological counseling is available to both new and re-entering students who are in need of help. Confidentiality will be strictly maintained.
