

Documentary Screening:*The Hungry Heart [Bess O'Brien, USA, 2013]*Monday, April 14, 7:00 pm, Kinoteka

The Hungry Heart provides an intimate look at the often hidden world of prescription drug addiction by focusing on a community in Vermont, and by following pediatrician Fred Holmes who works with patients struggling with this disease. Dr. Holmes prescribes suboxone to his patients struggling with prescription drug addiction. Much like methadone, suboxone helps many addicts in their recovery process. As the film progresses we begin to see the simple but profound connection that Dr. Holmes creates with each patient, and we see Dr. Holmes struggling with these challenges and trying to make sense and keep the faith in the midst of many contradictions. The road to recovery is paved with both success stories and strewn with relapses, downfalls and tragic losses. However, through the movie we see the many faces and diverse populations of addiction, and their continued search for a life of recovery. The film and its stories were featured as part of Gov. Peter Shumlin's 2014 state of the state address.

*Note: filmmaker Bess O'Brien will be present for discussion after the film.

Room Tone Festival
April 18-21

The Room Tone Festival consists of four days of performances, talks, and installations on the theme of space and sound as inspired by composer Henry Brant, the pioneer of "spatial music" and member of the Bennington faculty for two decades. The Festival will include:

- A concert of acoustic music from Gabrieli to Brant to Meredith Monk. Friday, April 18, at 8:00 pm in Greenwall.
- A concert to inaugurate the Deane Carriage Barn's new 5.1 Surround Sound system featuring emusic from Bennington and abroad. Monday, April 21, in the Deane Carriage Barn.
- Installations, soundwalks, and tours across campus featuring sound art from Michelle Nagai's Room Tone class as well as classic sound installations by Neuhaus, Lucier, and Young. Saturday, April 19, from 1:00-3:00 pm.
- Talks by composer Lisa Bielawa (Friday, April 18, at 4:00 pm in the Deane Carriage Barn), who will discuss her massive Berlin airfield performances, and by sound art curator Christoph Cox (Saturday, April 19, at 3:00 pm in the Deane Carriage Barn).

- The History of Provincetown, a play of celebration, woe, clam strips, and gettin' down, written by Sam Mayer '14 and directed by Parke Haskell '15 will be shown on Friday, April 18, and Saturday, April 19, at 8:00 pm in the Vermont Arts Exchange. Tickets are $5.
- Belarusian Dream presents four new short plays including one by an Eastern European playwright which further explore human rights in Belarus. Friday, April 25, at 8:00 pm. A reception and discussion with Daniel Michaelson, Cristian Panaite, Jean Randich, Aurin Squire, and the Belarusian Dream Ensemble will follow.
- Students interested in working as Writing Tutors in the 2014-2015 academic year should submit applications by Monday, April 28, at 10:00 am. The job is posted on WorkLink. Please see Noelle Everett Murphy, Assistant Director for Academic Services, with questions.
- Bennington Connects is hosting this year's Intercultural Festival on May 11. The event will comprise a variety of performances and the first ever Bennington Street Market. All students are invited to perform and sell or display their art in the Bennington Street Market. If you're interested in participating please contact Lena Korsah or Friederike Windel.
- Plots in the community garden near the observatory are available for any member of the campus community who will be around through the summer. Contact Kerry Woods if you're interested. Plots will be available sometime in late April or early May.

Note from the President's Office

The President's Office is still accepting FWT artifacts for the Inauguration Weekend exhibit. Get an idea for what other students have submitted by viewing the mini-exhibit in the President's Hallway. Drop your cards and item to the FWT Office at any time.
