

October 16, 1934

Mr. Carl Sandburg
Hobart, Michigan

Dear Carl:

Let me list the demands for a Sandburg visit to Bennington. The Luenings gave a party for you in Arizona a year ago. They want you badly. (He is head of the music here.) Lundberg has heard you many times. (He is from Minnesota and plays an accordion.) The McCams, from Texas, keep the Song Bag on the parlor table and know its contents by heart. We have a faculty of thirty-five people and 240 students who know and love your work. I want very much to see you.

We are planning a party afterwards that will rival all entertainments of the past. The College offers you $75.00 and expenses, and we list the following open dates: November 1, November 26, December 4, December 10, and December 11. Will you wire us if and when we may expect you.

Sincerely yours,

Genevieve Taggard all
Literature Division