"The Silo", new College magazine, is scheduled to appear in December and must go to press November 11. We need interesting, well written material--short stories, poems, articles of any kind, papers of general interest--which are original and constructive.

We must have this material immediately and we need your cooperation in helping us to collect it. Encourage your students to write for "The Silo".

Any contributions should be placed in the box in the Store.

Thank you,

Literary Board
