

334 West 85 St.,
New York 24, N.Y.
January 17, 1952.

Dear Mr. Feeley:

My exhibition is now en route to Black Mountain College and will then go to Buffalo and Rochester, arriving at Bennington around the middle of April as you suggested. The tentative date of April 23 to May 3 suits me well. However, if necessary the show can get to you sooner or later by a week or so.

Emily is doing well in her jobs. She has found two very interesting ones and a third which she may not take as it would mean giving up the other two in mid season. These two are silk screen work on tiles and textiles with Arundel Clarke.

She and Sue Petrone are living with one of Martha Graham's troupe in an apartment on west 15th St. It is really a dance studio and very attractive.

I do hope we have a chance to chat again soon. If you ever care to come to the studio, you will be welcome. My name is in the Manhattan phone book, but if I have room I'll give the address below.

Sincerely,

Alice T. Mason
Alice T. Mason.

149 East 119 St., NYC 35. Sacramento 2-3655.