12. THE CIRCUIT BREAKER SONG

*Hello! Welcome and thanks so much for coming out to my Senior Show in Music! This show begins with and is framed by a 4-part a cappella Mass that I started composing at the end of my Junior year, and finished during my Independent Study this past Field Work Term. The pieces with the * next to them are from a song cycle called The Last 5 Years by one of my favorite composers Jason Robert Brown. The Last 5 Years tells the story of Jamie and Cathy's relationship as they alternate songs, him telling it from beginning to end, and her in reverse. The selections I've worked on in voice over my Senior year are Cathy's first 3 songs that I'm singing in opposite order, as well as Superstar, made famous by The Carpenters. The Willow Song, The Danger Song, and The Circuit Breaker Song make up a song cycle I wrote called The Branch that Can't be Snapped, title vaguely inspired by James Wright's The Branch Will Not Break. I'm so excited to share this music with you and I'm immensely grateful that you want to listen :)*
