EVENTS ASTERISKED * ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC AS WELL AS THE CAMPUS COMMUNITY

8 p.m. * "Face and Oblivion: Myth and Reality in the Nuclear Arms Race" will be the topic of a talk presented by Paul Walker. Mr. Walker will assess the merits of the assumptions underlying nuclear arms strategies and he will discuss the economic and political consequences of these strategies. He provides an extremely well-documented analysis of these issues. Mr. Walker has a Ph.D. in Political Science. He is president of Klein Walker Associates, a firm engaged in research and consulting on the nuclear arms race. Sponsored by Social Science Division and Green Mountain Forum. Barn 1.

8:15 p.m.* Bennington College Music Division presents Maxine Neuman, cellist and Peter Calabro, pianist in Concert. The program includes: Sonata No. 2 in D Major for gamba and continuo by J. S. Bach; Variations alla Romanesca for solo cello by Jeffrey Levine; Two Etudes for piano by Frederic Chopin; and Sonata No. 3 in A Major, Opus 69 by Ludwig van Beethoven. Greenwall Music Workshop.

Tuesday, May 22

1 p.m. House Chairpersons meeting. Sawtell.

6 p.m. Student Council meeting. Green dining room.

7 p.m. * Noted author Robert H. Boyle will speak about "Acid Rain: Ecological effects and Political Controversies." Mr. Boyle, a lifelong conservationist, is president of the Hudson River Fishers' Association, the association primarily responsible for the Hudson River cleanup. He is senior writer for Sports Illustrated and author of many books including Acid Rain. This slide show and lecture promises to be lively and up to date; a question and answer session will follow. Presented by Green Mountain Forum.

9 p.m. * Film: Long Day's Journey Into Night: Katharine Hepburn, Ralph Richardson, Jason Robards, Dean Stockwell. An unrelenting, shattering film, magnificently directed by Sidney Lunet. Eugene O'Neill's triumphant tragedy of a New England family and their relationships alternating between love and hate, guilt and pride. Excellent acting throughout, but it's the play itself and Hepburn's losing battle with drug addiction that will haunt the viewer the longest. (also The Hand) Tishman Hall

Wednesday, May 23

12:30 Al-Anon meeting. If there is someone in your life whose drinking up-to * sets you, come and share your experiences with those who have felt 1:30 p.m. that way too and have learned to feel better about it. Dickinson 117.

1 p.m. Community Life committee meeting. New dining room.

2 p.m. Senior commencement meeting. Green dining room.

Friday, May 25

- 8 p.m. * The Dance Division presents Maximum Tech. I. Works by Andrew Grossman; Carol Mendizabel, Aileen Ghee, Jenny Eddins, Petra Franklin, Beth Donaldson, Jack Moore. Martha Hill.

Saturday, May 26

- 8 p.m. * The Dance Division presents Maximum Tech. I. Works by Andrew Grossman, Carol Mendizabel, Aileen Ghee, Jenny Eddins, Petra Franklin, Beth Donaldson, Jack Moore. Martha Hill.
- 9 p.m. * Film Once Upon A Time In The West: Charles Bronson, Henry Fonda, Jason Robards, Claudia Cardinale. Don't let the silliness of the title fool you; this is one of the best westerns ever made. Director Sergio Leone made this one after he made the films that made Clint Eastwood famous (Fistfull Of Dollars; The Good, The Bad, And The Ugly). Already regarded as a minor classic by film cultists; this exciting tale is helped by (now get this) Bronson being cast as the good guy and Fonda being cast as the meanest of all possible villains. (also - Our Gang short; Cartoons; Flash Gordon # 11) Tishman Hall.

Sunday, May 27

- 2 p.m. * Repeat of film Once Upon A Time In The West. Tishman Hall.
- 8 p.m. * The Dance Division presents Maximum Tech. I. Works by Andrew Grossman, Carol Mendizabel, Aileen Ghee, Jenny Eddins, Petra Franklin, Beth Donaldson, Jack Moore. Martha Hill.
- 8 p.m. * Film Hearts And Minds. Oscar-winning documentary about our misguided involvement in Vietnam. Intense, regardless of one's political persuasion. Sponsored by Student Services for Marcia Carlisle. Tishman Hall.
