

Educational Policies Committee

There was ~~of~~ a meeting of the E.P.C. held in Kilpatrick House on Wednesday March 8th.

There was the discussion brought up concerning the promptness of starting and stopping the evening meetings. It was decided to ask the person introducing the speaker to explain to latter about 45 minute limit. If speaker goes over time the introducer will be asked to interrupt long enough to let people leave at 8:15 who leave to. Peg Goodwin was chosen to ring gong at 7:25 to make people more sure of time and to get meeting to start at 7:30 promptly.

The following subjects to be brought up at House meetings:

the E.P.C. asked to find out about people acting as agent for Tours, and give their names to E. Shuncliff so that she may call a meeting with them and Dr. Leigh to decide about co-operating on one Tour.

The following suggestions were made to start discussion of use of Sunday evenings:

1. To have Vesper Service every Sunday at 5 approx. and good speakers occasionally, if desired.
2. To leave it as is, i.e. with speakers every Sunday.
3. Intellectual comparative religious discussion

The E.P.C. asked to find out if there are any complaints in any departments & to suggest that girls tell E.P.C. representative in that department if there are. (Examples Jones absence during week, Jester vs. Park.) It was suggested that the E.P.C. have a language & athletic representative.
