

COLLEGE WEEK

The Resonant Rogues

With original music from Keith Smith and Sparrow Pants, the four members of The Resonant Rogues draw on influences including gypsy jazz, traditional Eastern European, old-time, ragtime, hot jazz, western swing, country, folk, circus, and pirates. Stop by before Sitcom. Stay after to pick their brains about being traveling artists. Contact Alana Cooper if you have questions. Sponsored by the Budget & Events Committee. Thursday, May 2, at 8:00 pm in the Student Center.

Check out Sitcom, student written, produced and performed live serials with a new episode every week.

Thursday, May 2, at 10:00 pm in the DownCafé.

Myths and Hymns

In this genre-defying song cycle, Adam Guettel interlaces Greek myth, antique hymns and millennial intensity. Styles cascade: Art Song, Rock, Latin, R & B, Gospel, and Jazz. This music theater piece explores how we live, what we have done, and how we reassess what we can become. Performances Friday-Sunday, May 3, 4, & 5 at 8:00 pm in Lester Martin. For tickets, call 802-440-4572 or email tickets@bennington.edu.

Moonfest begins Friday, May 3, at 9:00 pm in the DownCafé.

Come out for an evening of chill music with Yeesh, Deviant Fix, and Stray Jesus and the Evil.

Sunfest takes over at noon on Saturday, May 4, on Commons Lawn.

Take a break from end-of-term studies and join us for Sunfest, the College's annual, all-day music festival! Activities will be taking place on Commons Lawn from noon-5:00 pm, including music by DJ Robdogg, Vomit Machine, PBS?, Floetic, Minga, Dasein, Blood Everywhere, and the Bennington Movement Collective. A picnic dinner will be served on the lawn. After-dinner bands include Guerilla Toss, U.S. Girls, and The Babies Japanther starting at 9:00 pm in the Student Center.

Performers Wanted!

The Bennington Global Connect group is seeking presenters for their Intercultural Festival, on Sunday, May 12. Interested performers of music, dance, poetry, etc. from any of the various countries represented here at Bennington (including the US) can contact Friederike Windel or Lena Korsah.
