

College Week

CPR/FIRST AID WORKSHOP SERIES: REAL EMERGENCIES The second CPR/ First Aid workshop of the fall series will be held on Thursday, October 2 at 7:00 pm in the Meyer Rec Barn upstairs dance studio. Topics covered will include natural disasters, terrorist attacks, car accidents, burning buildings, multiple wounds/multiple wounded -- triage, CPR & S-ABC. The event is free and open to all Bennington community members. Please contact Ron Zahavi (ronzahavi@bennington.edu) or Shane Blunk (shaneblunk@bennington.edu) with any questions.

DTGL 2K14 is fast approaching, and Kilpat would like to invite you (students, faculty, and staff) to an open discussion on the topic of "weekend wellness" at Bennington. This is a space to share questions, comments, and concerns as a way to clarify how we as a community at large feel about this historic event and all that it implies. We hope this conversation will clear up misconceptions, raise awareness of potential issues, and facilitate continuous discussion. Come to share, come to listen, we're excited to see you there. CAPA Symposium, Monday September 29, 7:00pm.

NO FLU FOR YOU! Bennington College Health Services will be offering our annual flu shot clinic from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm on Tuesday, September 30 & Tuesday, October 7. We are now able to bill your insurance directly, so there will be no out-of-pocket fee. Please bring your Insurance card with you so that we can submit for billing. For appointments or general questions, please email Billie Jo Tift at btift@bennington.edu, or call 802-440-4426 (ext. 4426 from campus phones). While it can be a major nuisance for healthy people, influenza kills around 30,000 susceptible Americans each season, and we do have people in the campus community who are at higher risk for complications. Getting a flu shot can reduce this number...it's the right thing to do! In Greenwall

EVER THOUGHT ABOUT QUITTING SMOKING? NO ONE THING WORKS FOR EVERYONE! Health Services is forming a group to discuss creative ways to quit, tailored to the individual. If you are interested, please contact Celia (cmayles@bennington.edu) or stop in to say hello. Health services is located in Commons at the base of the stairs to the dining hall and we are open M-F 9:00 am-5:00 pm.
