Dear Anne Rain,

I have been in touch with Patrick Bensard about returning the Judson exhibit to New York, and he referred me to you. Our contract with the photographers does not allow for further exhibition, so we must have it back as soon as possible.

It is our understanding that Chateauvallon originally agreed to pay for the shipment both ways.

I am very concerned that the photographs and videotapes are treated properly while being packaged and shipped. Please see that the written instructions are closely followed during the process. I've asked Dan Cameron to send you another copy of the instructions.

Please have the crates sent to Donald Judd as he has kindly offered to receive and temporarily house the exhibit. His address is:

DONALD JUDD
101 Spring Street
New York, New York 10012
U.S.A.

I have one more request: if there have been any reviews or other publicity, may we receive copies?

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Wendy Perron,
Judson Project Director
