Got Questions?

What happens if I lose my Bennington Card/Student ID?

If your Bennington Card is lost or stolen, and you have a declining balance on your card, you must immediately deactivate your card by logging into your user account at www.bennington.edu/Students/BenningtonCard. To replace a lost or stolen card, please come to the Office of Student Life during open hours (posted on the back of College Week).

Where Can I Use My Bennington Card?

The Bennington Card - the official ID card of the Bennington Community - provide students access to a variety of places, including: The Dining Hall, Library, MRB (general admission and use it to pay for classes), and laundry facilities. The Card can also be used like a debit card on campus and will also allow students to add money to their cards on a declining balance to be used at the Snack Bar and Bookstore, and to pay for Student Life-sponsored trips and events.

Learn more at www.bennington.edu/Students/BenningtonCard.

Where Can I Get Cash on Campus?

There is a People's United ATM located in Commons.
You may also cash a check for up to $200 in the Campus Bookstore.
